Emergency Logistics in the Global Supply Chain

Wednesday, 1 October

9:00–10:00

Paul Molinaro is based in UNICEF Supply Division Copenhagen and is responsible for emergency logistics response, preparedness, staff development and design of tools to assist field-based logistics officers.

He holds an MSc in Defence Logistics Management from Cranfield University and has fourteen years experience in running emergency field logistics operations. Immediately prior to taking up duties in Copenhagen in 2004 he was UNICEF logistics coordinator in Afghanistan for three years. He will shortly be undertaking a change management project to help transform UNICEF's global supply chain.

Paul is married with two young children.
